SAMPSON LOW, MARSTON, & CO.'S PUBLICATIONS.

NEW AND CHEAPER EDITION.

THROUGH SIBERIA.

By HENRY LANSDELL.

Illustrated with Forty-three Engravings, Route and Ethnographical Maps, and Photograph of the Author in Salmon-skin Costume of the Gilyaks on the Lower Amur.

1 vol., royal 8vo, price 10s. 6d.

A journey of 8,000 miles from the Urals to the Pacific, on the Rivers Obi, Amur, and Ussuri, and by the hire of a thousand horses. The author travelled privately on an expedition of a philanthropic and religious character to the penal establishments of Siberia, and describes his visits to nearly all its hospitals, prisons, and mines, giving a mass of authentic information concerning the exiles such as has never been published before. The book treats more or less fully of all parts of the country, as to its geography, natural history, and inhabitants, both Russian and aboriginal, pointing out also the commercial prospects of Western Siberia in connexion with the recent voyages of Wiggins and Nordenfjöld: whilst 3,000 miles of the Amur and Ussuri are here described by an English Author as an eye-witness for the first time.

SECOND EDITION, NOW READY.

MY WATCH BELOW; OR, YARNS SPUN WHILE OFF DUTY.

By "A SEAFARER."

Reprinted from the London Daily Telegraph.

Crown 8vo, cloth, price 2s. 6d.

"Whoever did not read these 'Yarns' when they first appeared in the Daily Telegraph, and we cannot all read all the newspapers, is earnestly recommended to make up for lost time. It is an open secret that their writer is none other than Mr. Clark Russell, the most literary of sailors and the most realistic of novelists. We are not acquainted with any other author who possesses an equal power of investing photographic truth with the charm of artistic expression. His pictures are not so much life-like as life itself. The 'Yarns' are thirty-six in all, and each contains enough material to make the fortune of a holiday number."

"Powerful in description, full of life and action, and redolent of the sea as one of Hook's pictures, we have never come across a more fascinating volume."

Cambridge Review

Dedicated by Special Permission to Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen.

SPECTACLES v. BLINDNESS.

"Spectacles can only be perfectly adjusted by those having a thorough knowledge of the anatomy of the eye combined with optical experience."

WE have the highest medical authorities, confirmed by daily experience, that imperfect glasses, together with the haphazard plan of selection, generally employed by the mere vendor, is the cause of most cases of blindness and defective vision.

Dr. Julius Benedict writes: "I have tried the principal opticians in London without success; but the spectacles you have adapted suit admirably. The clearness of your glasses, as compared with others, is really surprising."

The Rev. Oscar J. Thorpe, M.A., of Christ's Church, Cambridge, writes: "Mrs. Thorpe has been greatly benefited from the use of your spectacles; they cool and rest the eyes, and, in consequence, the brain, and thereby the tendency to severe headaches from which she has long suffered has been lessened."

MR. HENRY LAURANCE, F.S.S., Oculist Optician, 39, OLD BOND STREET, W. (late 3, Endsleigh-gardens, Euston-square), personally adapts his IMPROVED SPECTACLES daily (Saturdays excepted) from 10 to 5. Special arrangements are made for Invalids and others unable to wait on Mr. Laurence.
